At the Essex Market Police Court, yesterday, before Justice Shandley, Robert Patterson was committed to answer for stealing a newspaper valued at one cent.

William B. Brunges, the proprietor of a drinking place at No. 25 Bowery, was held in default of $100 ball, for selling liquor without license.

In the Court of General, Sessions, before Re-

In the Court of General Sessions, before Recorder John K. Hackett, yesterday, two trials were held resulting in one conviction and one acquittal. Four pleas of guity were received, six sentences were pronounced and three prisoners discharged. During the week a large number of cases have been disposed of, and the term thus far has been an extraordinarily busy one.

thus far has been an extraordinarily busy one.

At the Tombs Police Court, yesterday, before Justice Powling, John Spencer, whom Capt. Green had strested on the complaint of Mr. Wm. V. Leggett of No. 1870 step on the complaint of Mr. Wm. V. Leggett of No. 1870 step on the complaint of Mr. Wm. V. Leggett of No. 1870 states that on Oct. 29 the accused called upon him, and presented what purported to be a check for Ms. Grawn by E. S. Higgins on the Chemical Bank for Sts. made payable to the order of John Spencer, stamped and indorsed. He requested Mr. Leggett to cash the check, and, supposing it to be genuine, that gentleman did so. and, supposing it to be genuine, that gentleman did so. Subsequently he learned that the check was worthless. The accused confessed his guilt, and was committed to the Tombs. For having fraudulerily procured from the office of George Munro, No. 180 Williamest., 180 dime novels, by representing that he had been sont from the ovels, the American News Company, James Smith was semmitted for trial.

once of the American News Company, James Smith was sommitted for trial.

An examination was held yesterday at the Jefferson Market Poice Court, before Justice Dodge, in the case of Henry Marchail alms Glover and Lewis S. Cole alias Levi Cole, who, on Wednesday evening, were arrested at the Hotel St. Cloud by Capt. Francis C. Speight, essisted by Detectives McGowan, McCarthy, and Crowley, charged with stealing bonds amounting in value to $2.000. Mr. Charles B. Hotekiss, the President of the Pequonnock National Bank of Bridgeport, Conn., during his examination, testified as follows: The Casher of the Pequonnock Rank is William R. Higbee; he informed me of the theft; all the stolen bonds were contained in a tin box which was placed in the money safe inside the bank vault; he said that there was a strange man in the bank who engaged his attention; there was also another man; the cashier said that he could identify them; my name is on all the U. S. bonds; I claim only the contents of the package containing the bonds, with the prisoner Marshall. Capt. Speight testified to having arrested Marshall in the bar-room of the Hotel St. Cloud, with the stolen bonds in his possession; nothing was found on Cole which is claimed by Mr. Hotekiss: Cole keeps a horse in Forty-first-st., near the Hotel St. Cloud. In answer to the charge, the prisoner Marshall said that he had received $100 from a man to sell the bonds. The counsel for the prisoner demanded the discharge of Cole, asserting that there was no evidence to hold him. The motion was denied by Justice Dodge, and the examination ordered to be continued this afternoon. Edwin Wilson was held to answer a charge preferred by Gatharme Taylor of No. 188 Greene-st. of having, daring a dispute in his place, No. 169 Bleecker-st. cut her husband. Robert Tayler, on the forchead, wonnding him so soverely that he is now conflued in Bellevue Hospital.

Eliza Morris was held to answer a charge of stealing $100 worth of furs and clothing from the house of Julia Hanbury, No. 412 East Eighte

A NEW WOMAN'S RIGHTS JOURNAL. Dr. E. W. Hoeber, Secretary of the New-

York German Printers' Association, has written a letter to George Francis Train, requesting assistance in estab Ishing a new woman's journal, to be published in German, and called "Neue Zeis." In reply, Mr. Train inclosed a "mite" (the letter does not say how much), and informs the prospective journalist that he has town lots enough to keep him poor, and that the popular idea as to his having his ibrary papered with greenbacks is a fullacy. He also advances the proposition that printers cannot live on nir, and in conclusion assures Dr. Hoeber that Miss Anthony and Mrs. Stanton, the "Head Centers of the Women Circles," will gladly welcome the accession of a new journal to aid them in the cause.

LITERARY ITEMS.

Bayard Taylor has completed the translation of the First Part of "Faust," and is now employed upon the much-discussed Second Part. The translation of the whole poem will probably be completed during the coming Sammer; but the explanatory notes, and papers giving the sum of all important German criticism and comment on the poem, will require some months, in addition, for their unequaration. for their preparation. A new poem by Mr. Edmund C. Stedman, entitled "The Blameless Prince," will shortly be published by Messts, Fields, Osgood, & Co. It is a romance in poetle narrative, mediaval in tone, but of the "all time" of pure human nature in character. The plot turns upon and around a secret in the life of a Prince Consort, which is never revealed to the world. The poem is said to be fin-lahed with great care, and in its fall, sustained, flowing surpass all Mr. Stedman's previous poetical

THE STUDY OF LANGUAGES BROUGHT BACK TO ITS TRUE PRINCIPLES; Or, The Ant of Thinking in a Formion Language By C. Marcell, Kat. Leg. Hon., Author of "Language as a Means o. Mental Culture, etc.; "Premiers Principes d'Education, etc., etc. £1 25." The object of this brief cassy is to set forth a method of learning for, eign languages which shall guarantee facility in their use both for reading and speaking without the intervention of the vernacular. The author is a distinguished French philologist who has written this work in pure and vigorous English, with special reference to the wants of American travelers in foreign countries. His system of study can be made use of in connection with any of the common manuals, and is equally applicable to all the living European languages. It attaches great importance to the thorough training of the car, as the means of speaking fluently, and enables the student to coaverse familiarly with the natives, as well as to translate from the foreign language.

A SUMMER VACATION IN THE PARKS AND MOUNTAINS OF COLORADO. BY SAMUEL BOWLES,

Author of " Across the Continent." A volume of 175 pages, Price, ONE DOLLAR.

Out to day, and for sale at all the bookstores.

It describes the Pacific Railroad—the Scenery on its Eoute—and How is Built; the wonderful Regions of the Rocky Mountains to Colerado, below the line of the Railroad; their grand Snow Peaks; their great en-folded Central Parks—vast Prairies of Grass and Grove and Flowers seven to ten thousand feet above the sea level; experiences in Camp Life with Indians, Ladles, Vice-President Colfax, and Governor Bross; the claims of Colorado to be the Switzerland of America, the resort of pleasure-seekers and invalids; the Charms of Atsosphere and Climate in the Center of the Continent; and the state of the Mines and of Agri-culture in this great central region—all in the graphic and sympathetic style that made "Across the Continent" the most popular book of American Travel.
